

Police Officer Michael O'Shea

The son of a retired New York City Police Captain, P.O. Michael O'Shea was raised in Glen Rock graduating from Glen Rock High School in 1987. He was an avid weight lifter and well known in the community throughout his life.

A William Paterson University graduate, O'Shea began his career with the Los Angeles Police Department in 1996, working in some of the city's most high crime neighborhoods, receiving numerous meritorious service commendations. He returned to his former home of Glen Rock in 2003 joining the GRPD. In June of 2005 left to accept a position as a Special Agent with the DEA in the New York Office where he served until his passing. Although he left the GRPD after only two and a half years, Mike returned on his own time to assist in providing drug interdiction training programs for members of the GRPD.

P.O. O'Shea passed away on January 19th, 2013 after a valiant fight with cancer. A dedicated family man he is survived by his wife Tina (nee Smith) O'Shea, his children, Jack, Carly and Colin. Also surviving are his sisters and brothers, Eileen Theriault and her husband Adrien, Timothy Jr. and his wife Corrine, Kathleen O'Shea-Lauber and her husband Dave and Robert and his wife Michele, and many loving nieces and nephews.
